Once Upon a time, in a deep enchanted forest, full of beautiful Poppies and many colourful Flowers, there was a lake known as Swan Lake. On it, there lived beautiful Swans and sweet Flamingos who glided gracefully in the clear water. When the sun set, the swans turned into beautiful young ladies.

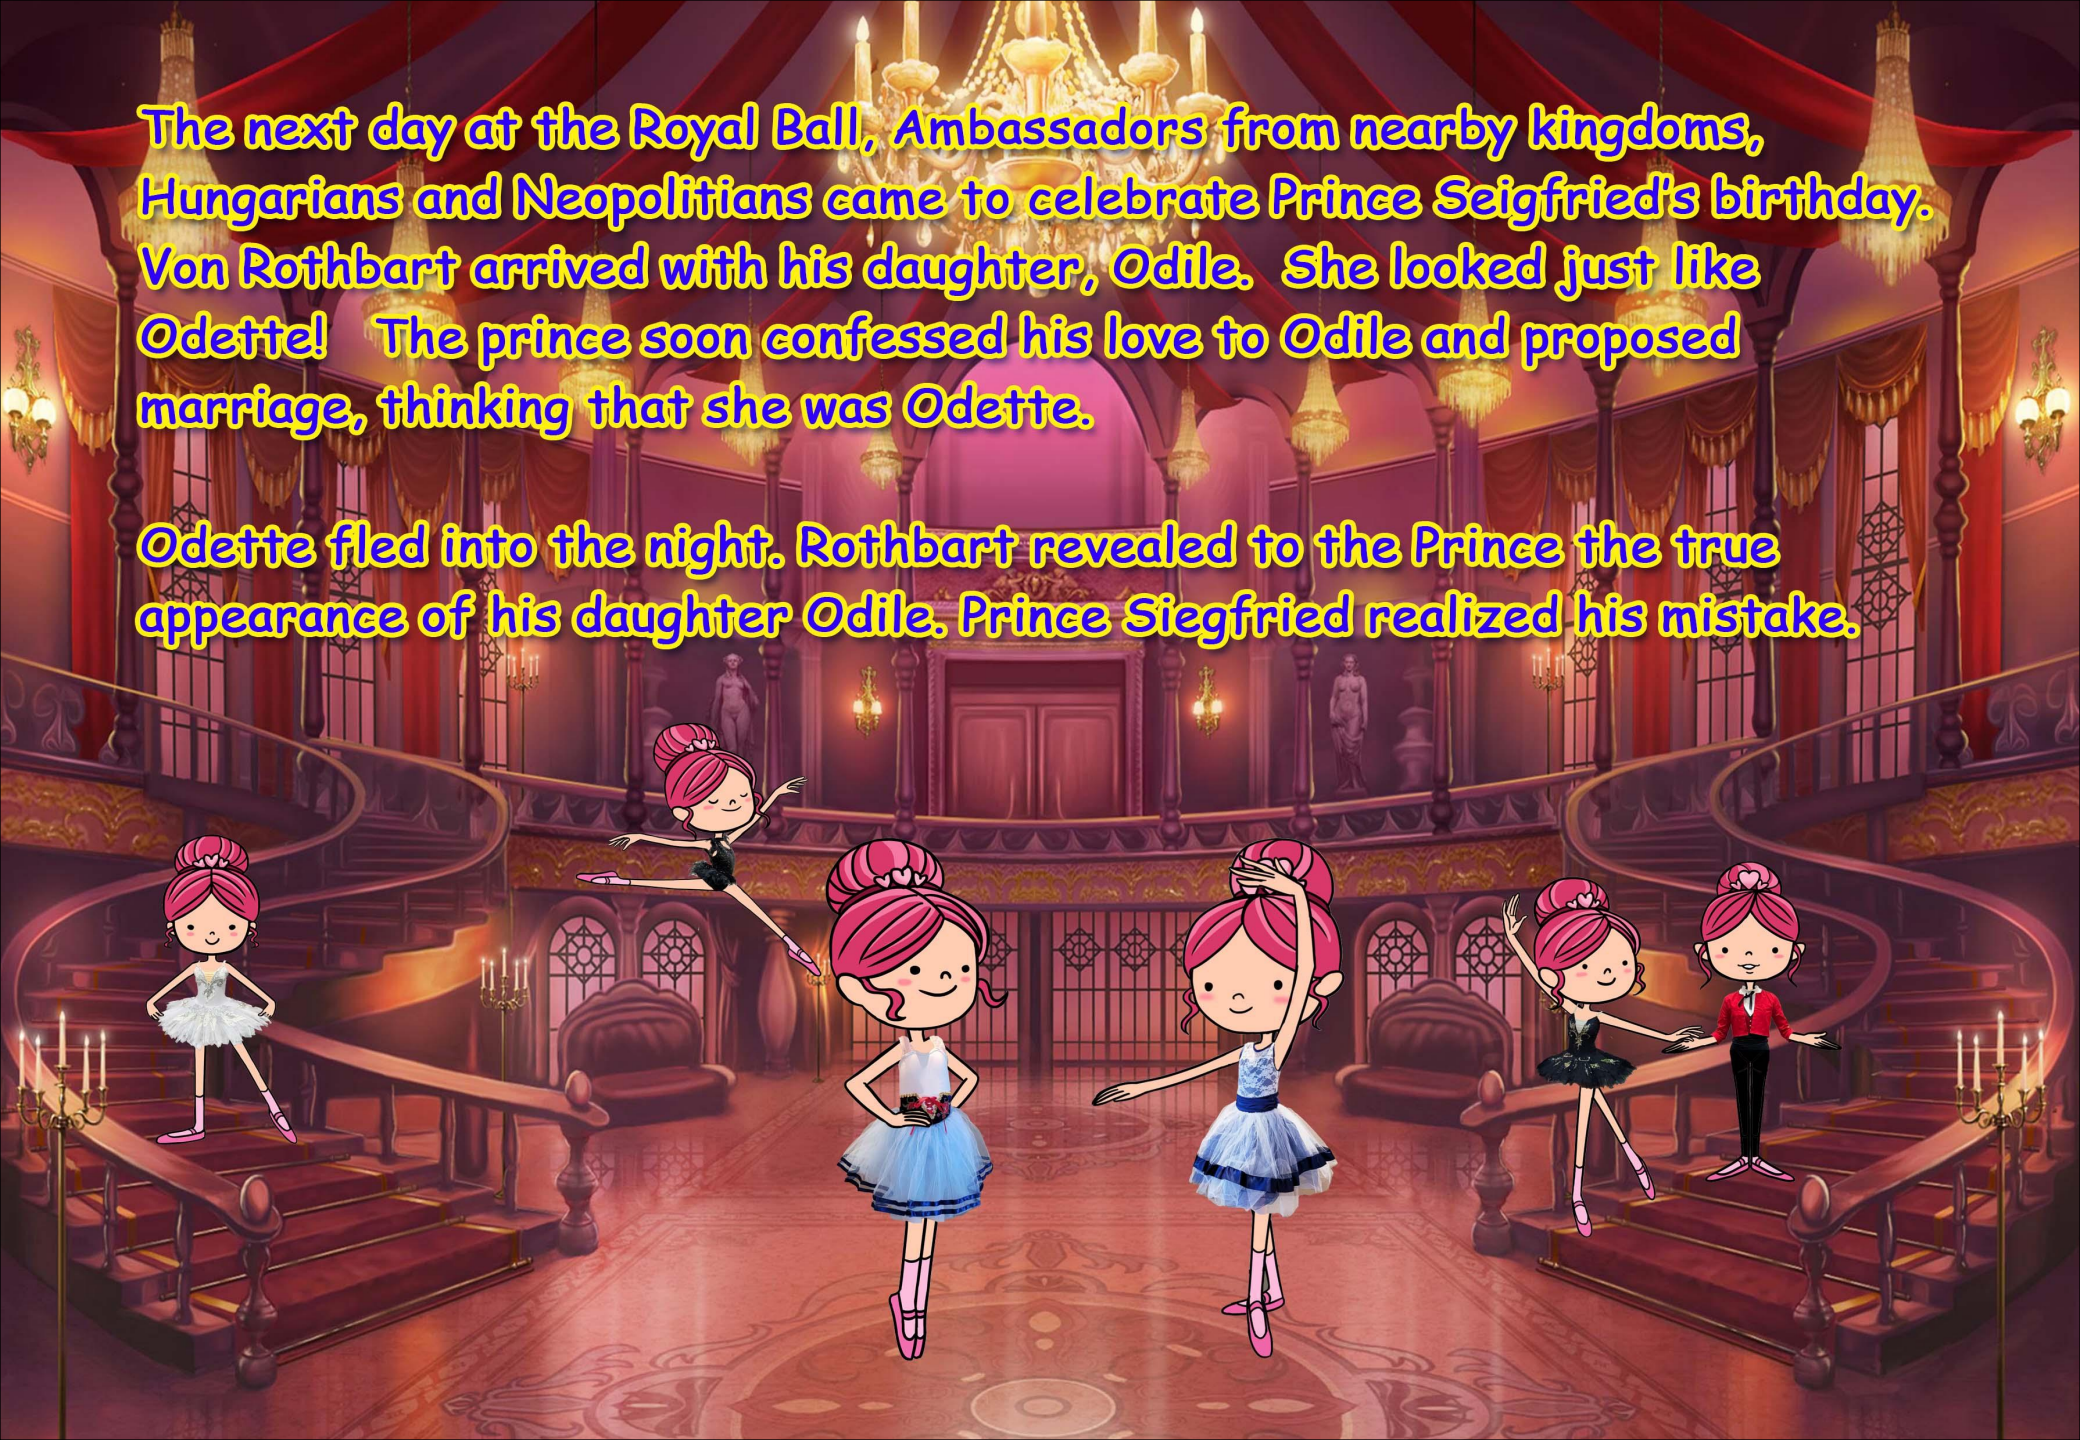

Princess Swan, Odette and her friends were cursed by an evil Sorcerer named Von Rothbart. The only way to break the spell, was if, Princess Odette found True Love.

In a Kingdom, not far away, there lived a Queen and her son Prince Seigfried. He was handsome, smart and kind. One day, he went hunting and came to Swan Lake. He met Odette, fell in love with her and promised to help her to break the spell. He invited Odette to attend the Royal Ball.

The next day at the Royal Ball, Ambassadors from nearby kingdoms, Hungarians and Neopolitians came to celebrate Prince Siegfried's birthday. Von Rothbart arrived with his daughter, Odile. She looked just like Odette! The prince soon confessed his love to Odile and proposed marriage, thinking that she was Odette.

Odette fled into the night. Rothbart revealed to the Prince the true appearance of his daughter Odile. Prince Siegfried realized his mistake.

That night by the lake, the swan ladies waited for Odette to return. She appeared and told them that because of Siegfried's betrayal, she would have to remain a swan forever. Siegfried found Odette crying and begged for her forgiveness. A great storm arrived and Von Rothbart appeared. Odette and Siegfried destroyed Von Rothbart's power, and spent eternity together.
